

Metro South Bay Is Yours

A Transit Postcard For Communities

Friday, June 25, 2004

Safety Begins With Me : Metro Rail Safety—Never walk on the train tracks. Metro Bus Safety—After leaving the bus, stop, look and listen before crossing the street.

Latino International Film Festival —The festival will be held at the historic Egyptian Theatre in Hollywood from July 16 to 25 and Metro riders can get there by way of the Hollywood/Highland Metro Red Line Station. Riders can obtain a coupon on Metro Buses and Metro Trains and receive $1 off the admission price at the box office for any regular screening.

Metro Rail Travelers—Inglewood public works staff rode on all four Metro Rail lines and visited the Rail Operations Center on June 24.

Come to a Metro South Bay Governance Council Meeting—Friday, July 9, 9:30 a.m. at the Carson Community Center in Room 209 A/B. Line 446/447 arrives at the corner of Avalon Blvd., and Carson St., a few minutes walking distance to the center.

OUR METRO CUSTOMER

Ifeanyi Okoli

Building supplies employee

Catching the Metro Green Line on Hawthorne headed east to Rosa Parks Station

Go Metro to Dodger Stadium— Just take Metro to Union or Chinatown Station then hop the shuttle and ride in comfort past the traffic right up to the gate.

Questions?
Call 310 225-6040 or email morallor@mta.net

For jobs call 213 922-6217 or visit metro.net

Metro Memories

Extra No. 5 Streetcars lay over on Hawthorne Blvd at Arbor Vitae Street in 1955

