

Metro South Bay Is Yours

Promoting Rail Safety—Children at the annual Bus Roadeo pass by the Metro Experience mobile theatre which features a 3-D simulated train ride and provides safety tips to the community.

Our Metro Customer

James Minnor

Departing on Metro Line 111 on Central Avenue at Florence Avenue.

Heading west to go to work.

A Transit Postcard For Communities

Tuesday August 10, 2004

Safety Begins With Me : Metro Bus Safety—Use the handrails when getting off the bus. Metro Rail Safety—Let passengers leave the train before you board.

Go Metro to Central Library and the San Pedro Trolley—Some of the points of interest you can reach between the South Bay and Los Angeles by way of Line 447 via the Harbor Transitway are the San Pedro Peninsula Hospital, the Wilmington Skills Center, South Bay Pavillion and USC. Call 310 225-6040 for a complete listing of Line 447 destinations.

Public Hearing—Public comment will be taken on proposed bus service changes in the South Bay, on Saturday, August 14, 10 a.m. to noon, Inglewood City Hall, One Manchester Blvd., Inglewood, CA 90301.

Metro South Bay Council Meet—Friday, August 13, 9:30 a.m. in Room 209 A/B at the Carson Community Center, 801 E. Carson St., Carson 90745. Metro Line 446/447 arrives at Carson St. and Avalon Blvd., a few minutes walking distance to the center.

Questions? - Call 310 225-6040 or send email to southbay@metro.net For jobs call 213 922-6217 or visit metro.net

The Snacker

Food and drinks can make a mess, or cause someone to slip and fall. There is no eating or drinking allowed on Metro.